MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD

You can be a key contributor to our democracy with three simple actions:

1. Register to vote and take part in democracy by learning about your voter rights and the upcoming elections.

2. Learn about issues that are important to you and how democracy impacts your daily life by attending speeches, events, and dialogues.

3. Advocate for others by using your voice, running for an officer position, or joining a student organization or a campus committee.

USING OUR GUIDE

You can find out more about serving our community with this voter information guide. This packet focuses on voting in Indiana and will provide educational information to help you understand how to vote and research information on the election. Any non-Indiana voter can find information about their individual state by using a search engine with [your state] Secretary of State.

Indiana voters can visit indianavoters.in.gov and voters from other states can visit vote.org for more information.

If you have questions, please email the Civic Engagement Assistants at ccsecea@iupui.edu.

Graph 2 takes a closer look at voting and registration rates from the 2020 election. Of the 26,151 eligible voters at IUPUI, 22,452 students registered. Let’s close that gap!
Indiana is striving for success. In the Indiana Civic Health Index, a goal has been set for the state to move from the bottom 10 states for voter turnout to the top 10 states.

REGISTERING TO VOTE OR CONFIRMING VOTER REGISTRATION

Registering to vote is as easy as one-two-three. Indiana voters can visit indianavoters.com and out-of-state voters can visit vote.org. You will need to input your legal name, date of birth, and county to see your status. To register to vote in Indiana, you will need your driver’s license number.

College students can register to vote at either the address where they live while attending school or the address where they live while not attending school. In Indiana, persons who will be 18 by the next general or municipal election can register to vote.

If you want to connect with someone in person, our friendly Civic Engagement Assistants have plenty of opportunities for you to stop by our voter registration tables this fall:

Thursday, August 25, 2–4 p.m., IUPUI Campus Center
Monday, August 29, noon–2 p.m., IUPUI Campus Center
Thursday, September 8, 2–4 p.m., ICTC Atrium
Monday, September 12, noon–2 p.m., IUPUI Campus Center
Monday, September 26, noon–2 p.m., IUPUI Campus Center
Thursday, October 6, 2–4 p.m., IUPUI Campus Center
Monday, October 10, noon–2 p.m., IUPUI Campus Center

INDIANA ELECTION DATES FOR FALL 2022

Voter registration ends: Tuesday, October 11, 2022
Early voting begins: Wednesday, October 12, 2022
Last day to request an absentee ballot: Thursday, October 27, 2022
General Election Day: Tuesday, November 8, 2022
INDIANA VOTING METHODS

Did you know that over 7,300 students voted early in the 2020 election and that it was the top method for students who voted? In Indiana, there are a variety of ways to vote that are easy and convenient for you as a busy student. If you are voting out of state, visit vote.org for information on your state’s requirements.

- Absentee vote by mail: The application to request this ballot in Indiana must be received by your county election board office by October 27. You can mail, fax, email, or hand deliver—the locations are on page two of the application. Visit in.gov/sos/elections/2402.htm for more information and to view the correct forms.

- Early voting: All Indiana counties offer early voting. You must vote early in the county you are registered in (e.g., Marion, Monroe, Hamilton, etc.). To find the early voting sites, dates, and times for your county, visit your county election board website or use indianavoters.in.gov.

- Election Day voting: On Election Day, you can vote at any vote center in your county. Vote centers can be found on indianavoters.in.gov. In Indiana, the polls are open from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Election Day. If you are in line by 6 p.m., you will be able to vote. IUPUI University Library, right in the heart of campus, is an election day polling location for voters registered in Marion County.

RESEARCHING CANDIDATES AND ISSUES

There are many nonpartisan sources that provide information on candidates and issues.

- vote411.org from the League of Women Voters: provide your address and get personalized information on the candidates you are voting on.

- ballotpedia.org – includes a sample ballot, links to candidate bios, voting records, public statements, and more.

- Your local county election board website.
VOTER ID LAWS

Public Law 109-2005 requires Indiana residents to present a government-issued photo ID before casting a ballot at the polls on Election Day. Under Indiana Code 3-5-2-40.5, which defines “proof of identification,” your photo ID must meet four criteria to be acceptable for voting purposes. It must:

1. Display your photo.

2. Display your name. The name must conform to your voter registration record. Conform does not mean it has to be identical.

3. Display an expiration date. The ID must be current or have expired sometime after the date of the last general election.

   NOTE: An ID issued by the U.S. Department of Defense, a branch of the uniformed services, the Merchant Marine, the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (or Veterans Administration), or the Indiana National Guard is not required to have an expiration date. Or it may state that the document has an “indefinite” expiration date.

4. Be issued by the State of Indiana or the U.S. Government. This includes your CrimsonCard because IUPUI is a state public school. Your name must still conform to your voter registration records. JagTags are ineligible because they have no expiration date. In most cases, an Indiana driver’s license, Indiana photo ID card, military ID, or U.S. passport is sufficient.

If this is your first election, you may need to provide additional documents at the polls that confirm your address if you registered by mail.

Acceptable documents may include:

- Indiana Driver’s License or Indiana State Identification Card with the voter’s current name and address that they are registered under.
- A current utility bill with the voter’s current name and address.
- A bank statement with the voter’s current name and address.
- A government check with the voter’s current name and address.
- A paycheck with the voter’s current name and address.

Visit photoid.in.gov for more information.

If you are unable to present an ID meeting these requirements, you may cast a provisional ballot. If you cast a provisional ballot, you have until noon 10 days after the election to follow up with the county election board and either provide the necessary documentation or affirm that one of the law’s exemptions applies to you.
YOUR RIGHTS AS A COLLEGE STUDENT

College students may register to vote at one of two places:

• The address where they live while attending school.
• The address where they live while not attending school.

It is a violation of election law to challenge a voter solely on the basis that: (1) the voter is enrolled in an educational institution or (2) the voter’s address on the registration record is at an address which is housing provided for students by an educational institution (IC 3-5-4.5-2).

DISABILITY VOTER RIGHTS

• You have the right to vote privately and independently.
• You have the right to vote, even if you have a guardian.
• You have the right to assistance to vote if you would like.
  • Assistance must be requested before you enter the voting booth.
  • You may receive assistance from poll workers or a family member, friend, or other person of your choosing.
  • You may not receive assistance from your boss or union representative.
• You have the right to an accessible polling location. All locations must have at least one accessible voting machine and the facility, including entrances and pathways, must be accessible.
• You have the right to vote absentee or early.

Visit Indiana Disability Rights at in.gov/idr/2596.htm for more information.

TRANS AND NON-BINARY VOTER RIGHTS

• You have the right to vote in private.
• You have the right to vote in person on the day of election or during early voting.
• You must register to vote with the name that is listed on your state issued ID.

PEOPLE OF COLOR VOTER RIGHTS

• You have the right to vote in private.
• You have the right to vote in person on the day of election or during early voting.
• A photo ID is required on Election Day. Valid forms include:
  • A state issued ID with an expiration date that is after the last general election.
  • U.S. government ID.
  • A student ID from an Indiana public institution.
  • A military ID.

Your vote means a lot—it is how you use your voice to make change in the government. Voting in midterm and local elections is how you change life around you.

When you vote for your local and state representatives, they make decisions on how your tax dollars are spent. What that means is they can affect both the taxes taken out of your paycheck and the ones you pay for at the store (gas, groceries, etc.).

Your vote affects local and state legislation. That includes everything from how lines work at the Bureau of Motor Vehicles to healthcare access in your area.

Your vote affects the world around you. It has the power to change what Indianapolis looks like—meaning how funding is used to repair roads, build parks, and even change traffic patterns.
CANDIDATES FOR 2022 ELECTION

Remember to always double check before you go into vote! Candidates may drop out between now and the election. Vote411.org or Ballotpedia.org are good resources for ballot information along with the County Clerk or Secretary of State’s offices.

TYPICAL ISSUES ON THE BALLOTS

In addition to voting for elected officials, ballots can also include referendums that ask voters to support or oppose certain public policies. In Indiana, these are mainly school bond and tax referendums.
ENGAGE WITH US

Our Civic Engagement Assistants are available to present on a variety of topics for you, your class, or your student organization. These presentations are offered at no cost and are available upon request at least three weeks in advance. The presentations we have available are:

Civil discourse: Civil discourse is a key component of political engagement. You’ll learn about key issues related to local and national government, the impact you have when you vote, and what is required to institute change in an organization.

How to vote: Learn about the processes that are encompassed in voting. This presentation covers topics such as: researching issues and candidates, voter registration deadlines, voting in person, and mailing in your ballot.

Indianapolis public transit: Public transportation is often avoided because of a lack of knowledge and fear of embarrassment. This topic breaks down how to use public transportation throughout the city.

Understanding government: Refresh on what parts make up our federal and local government. Learn about the responsibilities of elected officials throughout the multiple levels of government (federal, state, and local).

Contacting your representatives: You can learn the process for connecting with your local, state, and federal government representatives.

For more information or to request a presentation, please visit go.iupui.edu/presentations.
There are multiple offices, centers, schools, and units involved in advancing the civic learning and engagement of our students, faculty, and staff.
AMERICAN DEMOCRACY PROJECT (ADP)

ADP is a network of more than 250 state colleges and universities focused on public higher education’s role in preparing the next generation of informed, engaged citizens for our democracy. ADP was established in 2003 as a nonpartisan initiative of AASCU in partnership with The New York Times. The goal of the American Democracy Project is to produce college and university graduates who are equipped with the knowledge, skills, attitudes, and experiences they need to be informed, engaged members of their communities.

NATIONAL STUDY OF LEARNING, VOTING, AND ENGAGEMENT (NSLVE)

IUPUI has participated in the NSLVE project for the past four elections (2012, 2014, 2016, 2018). The reports show rates of student voter registration and voting broken down by different demographics.

IUPUI reports can be found at go.iu.edu/jagsvote.

INSTITUTE FOR DEMOCRACY AND HIGHER EDUCATION (IDHE) PROJECT

IDHE piloted a process for assessing campus climates for political learning and engagement in democracy. The process is based on research by IDHE on characteristics of campuses with unexpectedly high student voting rates. IUPUI used this model to assess our campus climate and developed recommendations for improvements.

activecitizen.tufts.edu/idhe

ALL IN CAMPUS DEMOCRACY PROJECT

This project is a competition between college campuses for the percent of students who vote based on NSLVE data. IUPUI received a silver award in 2018. In 2020, Chancellor Paydar also signed on to their Presidents’ Commitment, which commits IUPUI to actively working toward a goal of full student participation in the 2020 election.

INDIANA CIVIC HEALTH INDEX

The Indiana Civic Health Index is part of a national civic health index project of the National Conference on Citizenship. Locally, it is coordinated by the Indiana Bar Foundation with support from the Center for Civic Literacy, IU Northwest, the U.S. Supreme Court, the Center for Representative Government at IU, and IUPUI. A report is produced every two years that looks at indicators of our state’s civic health—volunteering, voting, social connectedness, group participation, and confidence in public institutions.

NASPA LEAD INSTITUTION

IUPUI is a Student Affairs Administration in Higher Education (NASPA) LEAD campus. As such, we commit to encouraging and highlighting the work of student affairs in making civic learning and democratic engagement a part of every student’s college education.

naspa.org/division/lead-initiative

ETS HEIGHTEN PILOT

IRDS piloted ETS modules for Civic Competency and Engagement and Intercultural Competency and Diversity in the spring and fall of 2017. The Civic Competency and Engagement module looks at: civic competency—which includes civic knowledge, analytic skills, and participatory or involvement skills—and civic engagement—which captures civic attitudes, including efficacy and democratic norms and values—and civic participation and activities. The Intercultural Competency and Diversity module looks at: approach (e.g., tolerance for ambiguity, cross-cultural self-efficacy, and positive cultural orientation); analyze (e.g., self-awareness, social monitoring, perspective taking/suspending judgement, and cultural knowledge application); and act (e.g., emotional regulation and behavior regulation).

ASK EVERY STUDENT

Ask Every Student uses the framework that full student voter participation comes from integrating person-to-person voter registration into existing processes, such as orientation or classes that reach all students. Every campus has different challenges, opportunities, and context to create a program that asks every student about their democratic engagement plan.

CIVIC LEARNING AND DEMOCRATIC ENGAGEMENT MEETING

The annual Civic Learning and Democratic Engagement Meeting is a conference intended to facilitate exchanges of knowledge and develop a sense of community around our shared civic learning and democratic engagement work. This meeting is designed around our CLDE theory of change.

VOTER FRIENDLY CAMPUS

Voter Friendly Campus has been a foundational member of our civic engagement initiatives at IUPUI. Through their education programming, action planning, and reports, we have been able to continuously advocate for voter resources, greater access, and stronger messaging throughout the campus leadership team. The action planning allows us to provide a thoughtful report to our campus constituents.
CAMPUS TAKEOVER

Campus Takeover is an ongoing and expanding partnership promoting the major civic holidays on campus. Historically, IUPUI has been an active participant in the National Voter Registration Day. In our 2020 election cycle, we are able to add National Voter Education Week and Vote Early Day into our evergreen programming. During the 2022 election cycle, we will be adding Election Hero Day.

CAMPUS RESOURCES

DIVISION OF STUDENT AFFAIRS: STUDENT AND FAMILY CONNECTIONS

Civic Engagement Assistants can provide presentations on civil discourse, how to vote, inclusive leadership for teams, Indianapolis public transit, and understanding government. They host regular voter registration events and signature events including debate watch parties, mock election, and March to the Polls.

SOCIAL JUSTICE EDUCATION

Social Justice Education (SJEd) at IUPUI finds ways to help the community explore issues of power, privilege, and oppression in an effort to create a more equitable campus, city, and world. We collaborate across IUPUI to bring programs, facilitations, and trainings to students, staff, and faculty. Some of these stand on their own, and others are integrated into already established courses, retreats and trainings, and professional development series.

IUPUI POLITICAL ENGAGEMENT GROUP (PEG)

PEG is an informal group of faculty, students, and staff who are interested in advancing political engagement on campus. The group generally meets monthly to coordinate and collaborate on things such as voter registration and engagement, political learning, and civic engagement. Participation by anyone interested is welcome. Current members include representatives from the Office of Community Engagement, Division of Student Affairs, Center for Service and Learning, School of Public and Environmental Affairs, School of Science, Social Justice Education, Multicultural Center, Office of Conflict Resolution and Dialogue Programs, University Library, and student organizations.

CURRICULAR AND CO-CURRICULAR RESOURCES

THE NATIONAL COALITION FOR DIALOGUE AND DELIBERATION

Dialogue and deliberation are most useful when people see a discrepancy between what is happening and what they think should be happening in the world or on an issue—yet there is no widespread agreement or shared understanding about what specifically should change.

NATIONAL ISSUES FORUMS

National Issues Forums are a nonpartisan, nationwide network of locally sponsored public forums for the consideration of public policy issues. It is rooted in the simple notion that people need to come together to reason and talk—to deliberate about common problems. These forums, organized by a variety of organizations, groups, and individuals, offer citizens the opportunity to join together to deliberate, to make choices with others about ways to approach difficult issues, and to work toward creating reasoned public judgement. Forums range from small or large group gatherings similar to town hall meetings to study circles held in public places, or in people’s homes on an ongoing basis.

THE COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS: WORLD 101

IUPUI was recently accepted into the American Democracy Project’s Global Civic Literacy project, a new, one-year initiative in partnership with World 101 from the Council on Foreign Relations. It’s designed to help students increase their knowledge of our global society and understand how global issues influence lives of everyday citizens.

As a student, faculty, or staff member, you can work with the free World 101 resources that include 10 different units on global issues and six different regions of the world to develop campus curricular and co-curricular activities based in global civic literacy.

TEACHING CIVIC ENGAGEMENT ACROSS THE DISCIPLINES

Now available in a free electronic format, this book evaluates the goals, challenges, and rewards of integrating civic education into the curriculum, while also highlighting best practices across disciplines and campuses. Editors Elizabeth C. Matto, Alison Rios Millett McCartney, Elizabeth A. Bennion, and Dick Simpson have gathered a diverse group of 38 contributors who approach civic engagement education from many perspectives to deliver a text that will be a resource for any educator.
